Social Change Dialogues

Our research and action programs—and the ideas they generate—are key to advancing gender equality, social justice, and human wellbeing. Join us to discuss those ideas and how they can shape a better world.

THURSDAYS AT WELLESLEY COLLEGE
Some programs will be recorded.

FREED AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
Coffee, tea, and cookies will be served.

For more information, visit wcconline.org/calendar or call 781.283.2500.

Contact accessibility@wellesley.edu for accessibility questions.

Social Change Dialogues are made possible with support from The Cowles/Stubbs Fund, an endowed gift to the Centers.

Feb 27
1-2pm
Gender as a Journey
HOB 147,(Context Space/Campus Center)
Call/Crane/Robinson
Emma Howe, M.Ed.
Co-sponsored by Wellesley College, Call Up and Women’s and Gender Studies Department

Apr 2
1-2pm
Does #MeToo Represent Black Girls’ Experiences with Sexual Violence?
HOB 147, (Context Space/Campus Center)
LeFils/Kendall/Dwyer, Ph.D.
Co-sponsored by interdisciplinary studies, American studies, feminism, intersectional studies, and social justice studies

Apr 23
1-2pm
The Student Parent Housing Crisis
In College, Raising Kids, and Nowhere to Live
Newman/Robinson/White
Autumn Green, Ph.D.
Co-sponsored by Education Department, Knapsack Social Science Center, Economics Department, and Greenbridge

Shaping a Better World Through Research & Action

Wellesley Centers for Women

A world that is good for women is good for everyone.”

The Wellesley Centers for Women is an academic research and action institute at Wellesley College that is focused on women and gender and driven by social change. We advance gender equality, social justice, and human wellbeing through high-quality research, theory, and action programs.

wcconline.org

Connect with us